4. PUBLIC COMMENT – Residents expressed that they do not see transparency with the Township Board. They asked why there is so much turnover. There is so much distrust of the transfer station. Residents asked what was the purpose of having a Planning Commission if there is no Zoning Administration. Complaints of not having a Zoning Administrator, but not interested in applying. Deputy Treasurer gave an explanation of the zoning situation. Residents addressed the Board with wanting a zoning to be enforced within the Township. The Board explained that no one has applied for the position and the attorney fees that it will cost more than what is saved. Residents also expressed their concerns on transfer station with people hanging out during business hours. Expressed concerns about Tom smoking a premises when working.

5. BUDGET PUBLIC HEARING: Opened 6:34PM – Residents were asking questions about the 21/22 Budget. Want to go by line item, but Township goes by cost center. Wanted to know why the expenditures exceed the revenues. (adopts) Asked why Supervisor, Treasurer and Clerks budgets are high. Deputy Treasurer gave an explanation of the budget and how the revenues /expenditures work and was spent.
